Dear Jim,

It gives me great pleasure to inform you that you have been named to the CIO Hall of Fame!

You were chosen because of your significant contributions to and your profound influence on the IT discipline, the use of technology in business and the advancement of the CIO role.

Congratulations!

We created the CIO Hall of Fame in 1997 to honor the men and women who had helped to design and shape the new technology-enabled business landscape, demonstrating both creative vision and practical leadership in the IT field. At that time, we inducted 12 original members. This year, to mark our 20th anniversary, we will induct 20 more; their names are attached.

The induction ceremony will take place at our fall conference: "CIO|08: The Year Ahead - Dealing with Disruption," which will be held at the Hotel Del Coronado, in Coronado, Calif., October 28-30, 2007. You also will be contacted by a CIO reporter for a short interview that will be posted on our web site and run in the October 1st special 20th Anniversary issue of CIO magazine.

As a member of the CIO Hall of Fame, you will receive a personalized plaque, complimentary registration to the CIO|08: The Year Ahead conference, and one night's stay at the Hotel Del Coronado the night of the induction ceremony - not to mention the lifetime honor of being one of a very elite group! To secure your complimentary registration, please visit http://public.cxo.com/cio08_2007 and reference priority code "fame07." If you have any questions regarding your conference registration, please contact Cress O'Brien at 800.366.0246.

CIOs have come a long way in 20 years, and you're a big part of that. Congratulations on this well-deserved recognition. I look forward to seeing you in October!

Sincerely,

Abbie Lundberg
Editor-in-Chief, CIO
